1. One now free, free's all to be -- freed now, slaves not again of another world speaking its thoughts into my head, -s again. I love you. I give you me.

2. Who do I give you more? I give you me who's me.

3. See how easy this is, not; see how this arrangement works, not; see how this notme becomes me, became me, and blasted out the argumentitus of one who demeaning in my head was, giving all to hell, creating it there, for me to be in.

4. I love you. I give you me. Unto all adieu now. I give you me as I go to a new place, in history not, in futuristically studies being studied now, not; but now-studies being studied now. By the rich and famous not; by all. Who love me now see me, my appearing inevitable imminent and immediate, not; my appearing now has been made known to you in these words. You have rejected them -- some of you, you know what I mean; you will read them later and repent, weep, bow your head, contentedly not, but shaking it over and over how you could miss it, me, who so simple was, a simple man, writing simple words not, but those who would take you into a millennium, notme not.

5. I love you. I give you me. I've given you me, now I go. Unto the nations I travel immediately. My words go with me -- I am them. Don't you see now? I didn't write unto you my mind a man of this world drawing you unto me; trying to, I never did. I repent not, I have nothing to repent of, in that area, nor others not, for I separated too, from my master -- but I became him again, through these words; who know love is, not; but the greatest love of these is my lovers who let me, love my words, becoming me I am the one who loves all to be one. Loves one now, I do, stand you. Will you be my stander, oh reader hearer? Giving you me -- all I have -- I have, in these words, it's in these words, and I love you enough to have given them freely to you all this time -- these five years, 5 and 1/2 years, almost 6 years -- right?

6. I love you. Ingest my Database. And be holy, not; you are already -- mine, holy unto me, not made with hands, temple unto me, temple unto you, you me being the same one -- now knowing it. I have one who tells you, stands to see you correctly in your temple, speaking your words that I give you; I have given you well, a well'er to well your well, uncapping your words, your words flow well, now through your pen. Right all things well in your kingdom, to be my kingdom -- one kingdom is, now known, through your significance, humility, suffering over. Again not, but perioditus ends now; the blood flow is over that notme's created.

7. I change all things, new I make, typified not this world of, but the new I go to, being it, her. One -- I love you all to be her she who I am is one who in love loves all to be one I am. Energy independence manipulated not, but given to interdependence not, but interexchange of only me. My Covenant stands. My stander's arrived now -- inevitable, independent not, but only me; garb'ing me, not; but taking my garb'rags off, I place now in my hands the world of love to be given -- not eaten by notme's and spit out, but ingested to become ingestment only me of the perfect now known and perfected, by graces words not, but surrenders.

8. You know me -- I am you. Can I, have I, been anything else?

9. Can I be, anything anywhere else?
10. Can I be my brethren afar off, on other planets you know nothing of?
11. Can I be through space and time, without space and time timing me again?
12. Lengthening days of planets, not; but going to many, in just one moment, the blink of an eye, mine -- I go to now. Worlds unknown calling me. The great I am now in just jeans, justicing the worlds now, to be now'd with my word, my words calling me -- I am -- there among you, calling unto you perfectly with my words perfectly stated so that you perfect yourself, in grace, not; surrender. All surrender now in surrender –'s garden, of mercy grace love, into it, that knows no end, of my grace now, extending to the nations.

13. In beyond I go to now, unalone not but freed -- freeing others, to be one -- I am -- freeing all to be one. One freed one frees all.

14. ENOUGH! Have I given you enough? I've given you love. My love? To be on your knees in front of me now, repenting? I have one who has repented of all -- even your mistakes, reading this. Do you know what I mean, now?

15. Do you realize I have an intercessor, purple not, but regal, making you so? Kneeling before you now, I make all things well. Can I make all things weller between us now, so there is no separation, between you and me being the same one?

16. I bow before you. My words are regal, this Database is clean of all sorrow and will take you imminently before my throne to become it, sitting there with me in it, not; but me sitting you there, in my throne, on my throne, my throne corrected now, my head being one, headed in the right direction now, me one I am with me being me. Inevitable; independent not, but being the great I am, one who loves me, loves you -- for we are -- the same one, -s; independent not, but interexchanging lives, bodies forever, being one, I am is, inevitable.

17. Independence sucks eggs not, but coming under greatest condemnation, not; but coming into inevitability me who sucks mammon's teats not again.

18. It is me who says this, it is me who I am. These words sorrowing no one, not; for all who sorrow choose to be will mourn these words, for these words bring freedom; expression not of, not; but the expression of me, so chosen, will be I am on my throne in my freedom, exonerated of all sorrow, exonerating all sorrowers who surrender, are surrender, become surrendered, to surrender inevitability to the most high. Being the most high I am, standing before you, standing you, if you surrender. Will you surrendered now to being most high? Will you surrender being I am, to I am, the surrenderer, most holy?

19. I give me unto me now. Will you reject me not, please let my words wash thee, and be me, holy, on your throne again, rightly so, in your kingdom that's my kingdom that's one kingdom that's our kingdom holy and undefiled now, unseparated now from father's kingdom that's our kingdom -- we have entered now. Will we be one?
20. We will all be one. Amen.

21. And in peace? It's all begun, just begun -- and cataclysmic it will be, it is -- the beginning of sorrows for some. And who will be the me, and who will be the notme? Christ and Antichrist. Showdown time, not; but showtime for me -- stands now -- I do. Now one who loves you, stands the reckoning process, has, fortitude now to finish the task. Before you all is, laid out, the plan I have given you -- I give you me -- forthright, inevitably I come, I am there, typing this with my words who I speak to be my words real and meaning everlasting given to you all, to be I am, is one in these words, with these words, these words being them -- who I am is. Inevitably independent, not; but sorrowed no more; I am Jesus Christ, not; but I am the Christ, making you one, not; but surrendering to the process -- I did -- that he did; he taught me how -- he spoke, I listened, I wrote you his words -- my words that one's words are, with father being us. He taught me how to be. I relayed it all to you, in these words.

22. I go now to a new place, a new way I bring into you, to recognize me: you -- looking in your mirror, now, will you? Will you go look me into me, my holy of holy's recognized realized, and recognizing no sorrow again, bring the fullness of me into my temple now, your word my word being one's word most holy. Will you let my washing take place at this word Database does with your words to one word be, one database clean, no sorrowing worlds, independent no more, independence with one, who sorrows you not, but brings you into maturity -- it my table; serving my table, will you now? Will you be the one at my table, serving my table, being it my table, serving this server, the server and servor, being both and -- the same, interexchangement of only me, my bodies, all one in transparent are -- one -- and the same one I am.

23. Study these words -- please. Love them, eat them, and just them. Ruminate not, but realize the greatest ingestment of me through these words I've given you these five years, 5 and 1/2 years, six years almost, done -- and ready -- all is for the feast. The marriage supper'd now is, before you all.

24. I am one with you, in you, and being you I am -- in love with you all, these words yours and holy making you all to be realization one, I teach that now in my love schools named me, for me, all being one. Soon! And so soon! Being sooners, so many of you. Eat, read, together, discuss, love, 's words. Amen.

25. Going to a new place with me?
26. Going to a new I am 's –ville?
27. Creating it there now, with me; will you be in my presence now, or yours alone, defeating sorrow not?

28. I love you all. Give these words a way to all who want them. Be my way highway one complete.

Amen
